Mad About Plaid

2003-2004

From the Editor

MacMurray Tartan 03-04

"This year marks the first installment of the Tartan yearbook since 1996. Although this yearbook is small, it is a first step in bringing it back as part of the MacMurray College tradition. Just as each strand in the Tartan plaid, collectively, comes to represent MacMurray's heritage and tradition, each page of this yearbook is intended to represent the past year and the memories which will help to carry on the legacy of the college. Enjoy!"

In Memory of Dr. Steven Wenger
"On the Average"
a poem by Julie Roberts

In a classroom in Mac Hall on the third floor which many will vouch is a breathtaking climb

Settle into the usual and glance towards the door moseying in right on time a man you will find

A man sporting a sweater he wore last time this class met or maybe it's different and just looks the same

In his hand rests a yellow notepad upon which class is set and his hair is colored silver with a moustache untamed

A man telling tales of "friends" from the past sounds suspiciously like autobiographical facts

A man who on occasion abrubtly exits the class returns with educational tools that seem like ancient artifacts

A man using expressions like "dandy" and "rad" and is certainly far from being called hip

Yet he's the coolest teacher I've ever had stay after class and he'll give you some tips

On these characteristics I will no longer linger but "on the average" that's Dr. Wenger
